

GEMS* @ the Bay Area Science Festival
Sunday, November 6, 2011

Sponsored by the Morgan Hill branch of AAUW
For All *Girls Engaged in Math and Science

On Sunday, November 6, we will attend the finale of the Bay Area Science Festival - Discovery Day at AT&T Park. In addition to Bay Bio Alley and the Chevron Exploration Village, there will be over 170 interactive exhibits, shows, experiments, and games showcasing the excitement and joy of science. We will be taking Caltrain to this free event. AAUW will purchase the Caltrain tickets ONLY for GEMS members. The cost of lunch will be the responsibility of each participant.

This event is open to GEMS parents and families. The Caltrain day pass (round trip) rate is $17.50 for adults and $8.75 for siblings (10 and older) and seniors. When you RSVP, please let me know if additional train tickets will be needed.

Please arrive at the Morgan Hill Caltrain station by 7:45 AM so we can organize the carpools, drive to the San Jose Diridon station, purchase our tickets, and board the 9 AM train. (There is no train service out of our local station on weekends.) We will debark in San Francisco, walk the city block to the stadium, and spend about 3 hours at the event before reversing this procedure. We will return to Morgan Hill between 5-6 PM.

When: Sunday, November 6

Time: 7:45 AM – 5:30 PM

Where: AT&T Park Bay Area Science Festival Discovery Day
